Ceramics Tutors

Box Hill Community Arts Centre (BHCAC) is an artistic and cultural hub within the City of Whitehorse, located at 470 Station Street, Box Hill.

Home to a wide variety of local arts and community groups, the Centre is a meeting place where people from all walks of life can come together to experience and enjoy the arts.

Art classes and workshops are on offer throughout the year for people of all ages, plus all of the Centre's art studios and meeting rooms, including an exhibition space, are available for hire. The Centre also offers Art Parties, giving children and adults the opportunity to take part in an art activity with their friends.

We are currently seeking energetic, responsible and reliable ceramics tutors to teach BHCAC term programs for adults and children, school holiday programs and ceramics-themed Art Parties when required.

The position requires you to set a diverse and interesting program exploring materials and techniques as outlined in the course description. Ideally you will be a practising artist and possess the knowledge, skills and enthusiasm to teach ceramic processes such as hand building, wheel turning and glazing techniques. You should be willing to work independently and also in a team environment.

Experience delivering similar programs is desirable and experience teaching children is essential.

You will require your own public liability insurance, a Working with Children's Check and a current First Aid qualification.

This is a contract position with hours as required throughout the year.

If you are interested in this position, please submit your CV and brief introduction letter to Stephanie Sacco, Programs Officer. Applications Close: Friday 20 October 2017

For further information, please contact Stephanie Sacco or Jenni Granger on 9895 8833 or email stephanie.sacco@whitehorse.vic.gov.au
